

Graphs

In the web annual report there are several different types of dynamic graphs. The graphs are designed in connection with the start-up of the site. They get their data from Excel files that you upload to the media library. If you want to change the data, just download the excel file, change the numbers, and upload it again in the same way as for tables. Creating a graph from scratch is also quite easy, but requires a few more steps.

